SERVING DELTA COUNTY

FEBRUARY 2020 | HOPEWESTCO.ORG

CREATING TREASURED MEMORIES

At HopeWest we often hear of the impact our volunteers make on patients and families in our care. But for one HopeWest volunteer in Delta County, her simple act of kindness turned into a memorable experience she says she will always treasure.

Pam Woods, made a routine volunteer visit at the home of hospice patient John, better known as “Dude.” During her first visit, she brought a memory keeper journal, a tool intended to preserve the life history of patients, which also makes for a great way to break the ice.

Prompted by questions in the memory keeper journal, Pam witnesses a special experience for Dude and his wife, Gwen, as they reminisce on sweet memories. Although they didn’t complete all the pages in the journal, Pam felt she was able to build a connection with Dude and get to know him personally during their brief visit.

Following her visit, Dude’s family asked if Pam would be willing to help write his obituary. “I was shocked,

HOW YOUR DONATIONS ARE USED AT HOPEWEST

If you are reading this, you know how important generosity is to sustain the care HopeWest offers our community. We simply could not provide the level of services we do without your support. We join with your friends and neighbors in thanking you.

As a donor you have the privilege of directing your gifts to specific programs and services provided by HopeWest.

For instance, if you designate your gift to HopeWest Kids, that money can only be used to pay for expenses connected with delivering those services. Last year, HopeWest Kids provided grief support to more than 700 youth, through school grief support groups, camps, individual and family counseling, and equine assisted therapy. With little to no insurance reimbursement for these services, your donations ensure the viability of the program.

If you make no designation, the money will be used where the need is greatest. What does that mean? Medicare and insurance reimbursement do not cover the cost of the care we all want our loved ones to receive. For instance, having 24/7 access to medical assistance when your loved one is suffering (without calling 911 or going to the Emergency Room) is, to quote one of our families, “a sense of security no amount of money could buy.”

In other words, your generosity enables HopeWest to do what is best for the patient and family without worrying about keeping expenses equal to or below what Medicare pays.

Other programs that may use non-designated philanthropy funds include our palliative care and adult bereavement programs. Like HopeWest Kids, these programs would not be available without your generosity. If you want to know more about these programs or ways to contribute, please see our website, or give me a call at (970) 874-3436, I would love to talk with you.

Thank you for making a difference. We remain forever grateful.

Using information she gathered in the memory keeper journal and from his family, she drafted an obituary for the family to review. The final copy ran in the Delta County Independent celebrating and commemorating Dude.

Dorothy Pew,
Delta Program Director

Welcoming our most recent members of the HopeWest Delta County Community Board has reminded me that HopeWest has a long history of being a community-owned organization.

We are here to support our neighbors in challenging times, and our volunteer board is helping create those networks and shape the programs that provide services to make a positive difference. Because the board understands the importance of community, their input and advocacy are essential to our success.

As is human nature, to feel as though we are valued and respected, we need to be part of a community. Whether it’s a community of friends, neighbors, volunteers, or coworkers, working together makes you feel like you are a part of something bigger than yourself.

One of the most important things HopeWest does is to help people know they are not alone. Should we all resolve to be a part of something bigger than ourselves by giving of our time and talent to ease our neighbor’s burden?

The Healing Process

Understanding Men's Grief

By Tim Douglas, LPC, HopeWest Counselor & Catherine Owens, LPC, Director of the Center for Hope & Healing at HopeWest

The consideration of men as grievers has become an area of focus and research as the field of Bereavement works to better understand grief processing. There are far fewer men who take advantage of grief counseling in group or individual settings and we wondered what we were missing.

What we missed were the healthy yet different methods of grieving that many men may use that do not include outward emotional expression or talking. Instead, many men share that they “think through” and “take action” to deal with the enormous pain they experience. This growing understanding is supported by the work of Drs. Ken Doka and Terry Martin, who propose that grief responses and processing happen on a continuum from the highly emotional – which they term “intuitive grieving” to those more cognitive and/or action based – termed “instrumental grieving.”

Notice that whether you are a man or a woman, either may be your personal grief style, and that most people find themselves with a combination of intuitive and instrumental processing.

So, why focus on men? Men and women tend to deal with loss differently. And, both individual counseling and support groups at HopeWest are designed to accommodate the full spectrum of grieving styles – intuitive to instrumental.

We value the opportunity to help men receive support for their pain, and process as they need to in order to integrate loss. We provide opportunities for men to consider various methods or techniques of dealing with problems that arise as the result of a loss by providing an opportunity to ask questions and get answers. Our hope is to provide information in an effective way that will help those who have suffered the loss of a loved one.

THE GRIEF JOURNEY SEEKING SUPPORT

Grief is experienced in so many ways – physical, emotional, and spiritual. One needs a place to recognize that these reactions are part of the journey of grief. While every loss is unique, through support groups or one-on-one counseling, you can be in the support of others who have experienced loss and understand.

IF YOU HAVE SUFFERED A LOSS, CONSIDER THESE QUESTIONS . . .

Are you finding solitude, thinking and action are what you need?
Are you hearing concern from loved ones that “you aren’t grieving?”
Are you unsure if you are grieving at all, and want to better understand yourself?

If your answers leave you with more questions, seeking support during this time can help. Call (970) 874-6823 or visit HopeWestCO.org to learn more about grief support services offered by HopeWest.

HOPEWEST GRIEF SUPPORT SERVICES

HopeWest offers an array of support groups where you can learn how to cope with grief and connect with others. Many of these services are free. Others are offered at a nominal fee on a sliding scale basis or are covered by insurance.

INDIVIDUAL & FAMILY COUNSELING

Counseling sessions are available to anyone who has experienced the death of a loved one or is connected to someone with a serious illness.

MENDING HEARTS

Mending Hearts is an adult support group for all loss types. As members share their experiences, they help one another work through and come to terms with the new realities of life.

FORGET-ME-NOT GROUP

This group provides a place to explore grief and its impact on the family. Families will receive education and support regarding the grieving process. Children and teens will work in age-specific groups, as will parents, allowing participants to connect with peers facing similar experiences.

SPOTLIGHT ON PET THERAPY VOLUNTEERS

BOOMER'S SPECIAL CONNECTION

How animals perceive death has been a longstanding puzzle, but a recent encounter with one of our Pet Therapy dogs and a patient would convince even the greatest of skeptics that this dog knew something of death and grief.

Boomer, a Rhodesian Ridgeback, and her owner had been called to pay one last visit to their patient, who was in the last days of life. Boomer right away noticed a significant change in the patient and snuggled up close with her head on the bed.

This was unique to Boomer's behavior as she is generally aloof around people. Boomer eventually snuggled up under the patient's arm and gave her a kiss on the cheek, as if to say 'goodbye.' Boomer's owner noted as they left the visit that the dog seemed somber; obviously, there is some sense of grief and loss – as one might expect from man's best friend.
